Are there any wholesalers of home solar integrated machines

Overview

Should you buy wholesale solar equipment?

There are many benefits to buying wholesale solar equipment and streamlining your supply chain processes. Lower priced arrays help more people go solar. You probably got into this business because you believe in solar as an affordable renewable energy source and want to do your part to make it accessible to all.

Do solar wholesalers offer Value-Added Services?

Many solar wholesalers and distributors have evolved their business models to offer value-added services. Some provide storage space to contractors and will drop ship equipment to project worksites. Some offer lines of credit. And some buy back your excess and used equipment as long as the material has resale value.

How do Solar Contractors buy & sell solar equipment?

Rather, they tend to acquire goods from a variety of supplier relationships like manufacturers, other wholesalers, liquidators, auction houses, and even developers, EPCs, and contractors with excess and second-hand material. They may work with solar equipment brokers to buy and sell goods as well.

How do I get a wholesale solar quote?

Installers, EPCs and solar brokers looking for wholesale deals can request quotes from multiple sellers by joining online exchanges or partnering with a solar equipment broker. For example, EnergyBin members who send out RFQs for their material lists receive an average of 5-10 quotes within one business day.

Can a solar wholesaler liquidate stranded and distressed PV equipment?

Read how a reseller found his niche as a surplus liquidator of stranded and distressed PV equipment. Many solar wholesalers and distributors have evolved their business models to offer value-added services. Some provide storage space to contractors and will drop ship equipment to project worksites. Some offer lines of credit.

Should you buy or sell solar panels?

It depends on economic conditions. So long as a product is retaining its market value, you're safe to hold onto it. Oftentimes, cash on hand is more valuable than inventory. Watch market trends to snag buy-low deals on solar panels and other PV hardware parts. 10.
