Solar photovoltaic panel disputes

Overview

Should I file a lawsuit against a solar panel company?

Consulting with an attorney specializing in solar panel litigation can help determine the best approach for your case. Ongoing lawsuits show that homeowners have strong cases against lenders when misrepresentations and contract breaches happen. If a solar company wronged you and is now out of business, you may have legal options.

Are solar disputes tarnishing the solar industry?

These mounting disputes present significant challenges for solar companies, threatening their reputation and creating potential legal risks, but also tarnishing the entire solar industry, which could negatively affect the overall growth of the solar market in the future. But there is a way forward.

Should you take legal action against a solar panel lender?

As more homeowners take legal action against solar panel lenders for misrepresentations and failed warranties, many are eager to understand the latest results in these cases. If you've considered legal action or are already involved in a lawsuit, you might be wondering: What are the chances of winning?

and What do settlements look like?

Why did Tom file a complaint against the solar company?

Feeling deceived, Tom filed a complaint against the solar company, arguing that their representative had misled him into believing all costs would qualify, and considered pursuing legal action to cover the unexpected financial liability.

What happens if you sell solar panels to a company?

Often companies involved in selling solar panels to consumers don't treat their customers properly. Sometimes they damage people's roofs while they're installing the panels. Sometimes they sell the entire residential solar system to a company you've never heard of – and that company starts abusing the consumer.

How can solar power companies protect you from fraud?

Every state has laws against fraud, and most states have consumer protection laws that prevent this kind of abuse. We can use those laws to recover your damages. Sometimes solar power companies try to collect debts that aren't owed, or they use abusive practices like harassing calls or charging baseless late fees.
