Wind solar and storage projects were cleared

Overview

Why did Trump pause wind energy projects?

On his first day in office, Trump paused new leasing and permitting of wind energy projects on federal lands and waters pending a federal review. This marked a major shift in U.S. energy policy, which under Biden had been focused on decarbonizing the U.S. electricity grid by 2035. April 17.

Why did companies cancel a record $4.5 billion investment?

In April alone, companies canceled a record $4.5 billion in investments in new battery, electric vehicle and wind projects in advance of the U.S. House's passage of a massive tax and spending package that would essentially kill federal clean energy tax credits.

Will the USDA stop supporting wind and solar projects on farmland?

Agriculture Secretary Brooke Rollins said her agency would no longer support wind and solar projects on productive farmland. A day later, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said it would heighten scrutiny of some solar and wind projects but stopped short of ending all agency support for clean energy projects on U.S. farms. August 21.

Why did EPA end a $7 billion solar grant program?

August 7 The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency said it would end a $7 billion grant program that sought to expand solar energy to low-income communities. EPA Administrator Lee Zeldin said that since passage of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA), his agency no longer had the authority to administer the program.

Why did Biden cancel Lava Ridge wind project?

The Interior Department said it was canceling the Biden administration's approval of the 1,000-megawatt Lava Ridge wind project in Idaho, citing legal deficiencies and community opposition. August 7 The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency said it would end a $7 billion grant program that sought to expand solar energy to low-income communities.

How many jobs & investments were impacted by the abandoned projects?

Nearly 20,000 jobs and $16.7 billion in investments were connected with the abandoned projects. A full map and list of announcements is available at e2.org/announcements/. Cancellation data will be incorporated in the coming months.
